

Assembly District 13 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

StocktonSafe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 49.4%, Republican: 22.7%, No Party Preference: 21.8%

Candidates:

- Kathy Miller (Democrat) - San Joaquin County Supervisor
- Carlos Villapudua (Democrat) - Small Business Owner

Results: Not final but leaning strongly toward a Miller win.

Comments: This AD is in the Stockton area and was occupied by Susan Eggman. Typically, a moderate occupies this seat. Miller is ahead and her background is in local government. (BOS and City Council). Villapudua also has a local gov background and was a board member of the Hispanic Chamber.

Assembly District 25 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Fremont-Santa ClaraSafe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 48.3%, Republican: 15.1%, No Party Preference: 32.9%

Candidates:

- Bob Brunton (Republican) - Businessman/Electronic Manufacturer
- Alex Lee (Democrat) - Legislative Policy Advisor

Results: Lee

Comments: Lee is a progressive, having worked as a policy director for both the Senate and Assembly. He is the youngest legislator (in almost a century), and the first openly bisexual member. His issues will be homelessness, housing, transportation and climate change. I was told he is close with Evan Low.

Assembly District 33 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

SB High DesertSafe Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 34.2%, Republican: 36.0%, No Party Preference: 21.4%

Candidates:

- Rick Herrick (Republican) - Mayor/Business Owner
- Thurston "Smitty" Smith (Republican) - Retired Business Owner

Results: Smitty

Comments: We met Smitty early on in his campaign. He's a local government guy, having served as chair of his regional League of Cities division. His issues? Local government. I imagine we will be working with him on a lot of local issues.

Assembly District 35 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

San Luis Obispo Likely Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 37.5%, Republican: 34.2%, No Party Preference: 21.8%

Incumbent: Jordan Cunningham (R) term limit: 2028

Candidates:

- Dawn Addis (Democrat) - Teacher/City Councilmember
- * Jordan Cunningham (Republican) - Assemblymember/Small Businessman

Results: Cunningham keeps this seat.

Assembly District 36 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

Palmdale Likely Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 40.9%, Republican: 30.0%, No Party Preference: 22.2%

Incumbent: Tom Lackey (R) term limit: 2024

Candidates:

- Steve Fox (Democrat) - Attorney/Educator
- * Tom Lackey (Republican) - California State Assemblyman

Results: Lackey keeps this seat.

Assembly District 37 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Santa Barbara Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 49.3%, Republican: 23.0%, No Party Preference: 21.8%

Candidates:

- Steve Bennett (Democrat) - Ventura County Supervisor
- Charles W. Cole (Republican) - Businessman/Media Consultant

Results: Bennett

Comments: Bennett was a BOS in Ventura County. He was also a school teacher. He ran on the fight against climate change and protecting the environment. Our guess is that he will be working on water, energy, local government and natural resources issues.

Assembly District 38 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Santa Clarita Safe Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 37.2%, Republican: 33.8%, No Party Preference: 23.0%

Incumbent: Christy Smith (D) term limit: 2030

Candidates:

- Suzette Martinez Valladores (Republican) - Educator/Nonprofit Director
- Lucie Lapointe Volotzky (Republican) - Small Business Owner

Results: Martinez

Comments: Martinez is the granddaughter of a farmworker who worked along side Cesar Chavez. She worked for a Congressional Republican and is the CEO of a faith based preschool.

Assembly District 42 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

Cathedral City, Twenty-Nine Palms, Yucaipa Likely Independent | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 37.2%, Republican: 35.9%, No Party Preference: 20.1%

Incumbent: Chad Mayes (N) term limit: 2026

Candidates:

- Andrew F. Kotyuk (Republican) - Small Businessman/Mayor
- * Chad Mayes (No Party Preference) - Member of the State Assembly

Results: Mayes retains seat.

Assembly District 55 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

Diamond Bar-Yorba Linda Toss-up | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 35.2%, Republican: 34.0%, No Party Preference: 26.1%

Incumbent: Phillip Chen (R) term limit: 2028

Candidates:

- * Phillip Chen (Republican) - Assemblyman/Educator/Businessman
- Andrew E. Rodriguez (Democrat) - Mayor/County Commissioner

Results: Chen retains seat

Assembly District 57 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

Whittier Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 49.0%, Republican: 21.6%, No Party Preference: 24.0%

Candidates:

- Lisa Calderon (Democrat) - Businesswoman/Mom
- Jessica Martinez (Republican) - Educator

Results: Calderon

Comments: Lisa is the step mother of Ian who occupied this seat before stepping down and endorsing her. She beat Blanca and Susan Rubio's sister in the primary. She is a progressive and was one of the first Latina staffers in the Legislature. Her interests are increasing access to MediCal and helping small businesses. She will most likely be aligned with the Assembly Dem priorities.

Assembly District 59 [full district election page | legislative directory page]

South Los Angeles Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 64.9%, Republican: 5.1%, No Party Preference: 24.3%

Incumbent: Reginald Byron Jones-Sawyer (D) term limit: 2024

Candidates:

- * Reggie Jones-Sawyer (Democrat) - California State Assemblyman
- Efren Martinez (Democrat) - Public Policy Commissioner

Results: Jones-Sawyer retains seat.

Assembly District 64 [full district election page | legislative directory page]

Carson Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 61.9%, Republican: 8.4%, No Party Preference: 24.2%

Incumbent: Mike A. Gipson (D) term limit: 2026

Candidates:

- * Mike Anthony Gipson (Democrat) - State Assemblymember
- Fatima S. Iqbal-Zubair (Democrat) - Public School Teacher

Results: Gipson retains seat

Assembly District 67 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

MurrietaSafe Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 31.4%, Republican: 40.1%, No Party Preference: 21.7%

Candidates:

- Jerry Carlos (Democrat) - Commissioner/Business Owner
- Kelly Seyarto (Republican) - Mayor, City of Murrieta

Results: Seyarto

Comments: Seyarto was a firefighter and retired as a battalion chief. His background is in local government; he was on the city council of Murrieta and also served on the League of Cities public safety committee. Based on his background, we can assume he is going to be involved in public safety and local government issues.

Assembly District 68 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Anaheim Hills-Orange-Tustin-IrvineToss-up | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 34.6%, Republican: 35.3%, No Party Preference: 25.4%

Incumbent: Steven Choi (R) term limit: 2028

Candidates:

- * Steven "Steve" Choi (Republican) - Assemblyman/Businessman/Educator
- Melissa Fox (Democrat) - Irvine Councilmember/Businesswoman

Results: Looks like Choi will retain the seat. He's up by 13,00 votes.

Assembly District 72 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Garden Grove-Westminster-Fountain ValleyLeans Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 34.8%, Republican: 35.9%, No Party Preference: 24.5%

Candidates:

- Janet Nguyen (Republican) - Orange County Foundation Boardmember
- Diedre Nguyen (Democrat) - Cancer Scientist/Councilmember

Results: Janet Nguyen

Comments: This AD was previously occupied by Tyler Diep who lost his reelection in the primary. Nguyen was elected to the Senate but lost to Josh Newman in 2016. She is a moderate Republican and a small business owner. She was also on the Orange County Board of Supervisors. As a Senator, her priorities were local government, veteran’s affairs and minimizing tax burdens on CA businesses.

Assembly District 73 [full district election page | legislative directory page]

South Orange County Likely Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 30.7%, Republican: 41.2%, No Party Preference: 22.9%

Candidates:

- Laurie Davies (Republican) - Laguna Niguel Mayor/Businesswoman
- Scott Rhinehart (Democrat) - Business Services Director

Results: Davies

Comments: Davies has a background in the restaurant business and was on the Laguna Niguel City Council. Based on her background, we can assume she will work on business and local government issues.

Assembly District 78 [full district election page | legislative directory page]

Coastal SD Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 47.5%, Republican: 20.4%, No Party Preference: 26.3%

Candidates:

- Sarah Davis (Democrat) - Businesswoman/Licensed Midwife
- Chris Ward (Democrat) - City Councilmember/Parent

Results: Ward

Comments: Ward succeeds Todd Gloria who is ahead on his bid for San Diego Mayor (still too soon to call it). Ward was on the SD City Council and his top priorities are homelessness, housing, economic development and public safety. He also served as Chief of Staff to Sen. Marty Block. He will be a progressive member of the Assembly Democrats.

Senate District 05 [\[full district election page\]](#) | [legislative directory page\]](#)

San Joaquin Likely Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 42.2%, Republican: 30.8%, No Party Preference: 20.7%

Candidates:

- Susan Talamantes Eggman (Democrat) - Assemblymember/Parent
- Jim Ridenour (Republican) - Law Enforcement Contractor

Results: Eggman wins Senate seat. She comes from the Assembly.

Comments: Eggman succeeds Galgiani who was termed out this year. She has historically had a moderate voting record. Her interests are water and agriculture as well as protecting small businesses.

Senate District 11 [\[full district election page\]](#) | [legislative directory page\]](#)

San Francisco Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 61.9%, Republican: 7.0%, No Party Preference: 27.2%

Incumbent: Scott D. Wiener (D) term limit: 2028

Candidates:

- Jackie Fielder (Democrat) - Educator/Nonprofit Organizer
- * Scott Wiener (Democrat) - State Senator

Results: Wiener retains the seat

Senate District 13 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Election: March 3, 2020

San MateoSafe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 53.6%, Republican: 14.6%, No Party Preference: 27.7%

Candidates:

- Josh Becker (Democrat) - Educator/Non-Profit Director
- Alexander Glew (Republican) - Engineer/Business Owner

Results: Becker

Comments: Becker succeeds Sen. Hill who was termed out this year. Becker is an affordable health care and environmental activist. He founded Clean Tech for Obama. He will be a progressive member of the Senate Democrats.

Senate District 15 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

San JoseSafe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 49.0%, Republican: 17.2%, No Party Preference: 29.7%

Candidates:

- Dave Cortese (Democrat) - County Supervisor, Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors
- Ann M. Ravel (Democrat) - Public Interest Attorney

Results: Cortese

Comments: Cortese was on the Santa Clara Board of Supervisors and the San Jose City Council. His background and likely interests are transportation, housing and energy. He was supported by both labor and management groups. Some have speculated that he was the more moderate candidate, however, he received more labor support than Ravel. Senator Glazer and the moderate members of the Senate were supportive of Ravel and see this as a loss to add to their numbers in the Senate.

Senate District 17 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Santa Cruz-SLO Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 47.8%, Republican: 23.8%, No Party Preference: 22.7%

Candidates:

- John Laird (Democrat) - Natural Resources Secretary
- Vicki Nohrden (Republican) - Businesswoman

Results: Laird

Comments: Laird served in the Assembly before terming out and being appointed as Secretary of Resources by Governor Brown. He and his resources team were a part of the negotiations of Prop 1, the water bond, which passed in 2014. He will be a progressive member of the Senate.

Senate District 19 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Election: March 3, 2020

Santa Barbara/Ventura Safe Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 47.2%, Republican: 24.6%, No Party Preference: 22.1%

Candidates:

- S. Monique Limón (Democrat) - State Assemblymember
- Gary J. Michaels (Republican) - Telecommunications Consultant

Results: Limon

Comments: Limon came from the Assembly where she took on the oil and lending industries, particularly the payday loan businesses in California. She will be a progressive on most issues except for charter school policies.

Senate District 21 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

Santa Clarita-Antelope Valley Toss-up | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 39.3%, Republican: 31.3%, No Party Preference: 22.4%

Incumbent: Scott Wilk (R) term limit: 2024

Candidates:

- Kipp Mueller (Democrat) - Workers Rights Attorney
- * Scott Wilk (Republican) - State Senator

Results: Wilk more than likely to retain his seat. .

Senate District 23 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

Election: March 3, 2020

Rancho Cucamonga-Redlands-Hemet Leans Republican | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 37.0%, Republican: 35.4%, No Party Preference: 20.7%

Candidates:

- Rosilicia Ochoa Bogh (Republican) - Businesswoman/School Boardmember
- Abigail Medina (Democrat) - School Board President

Results: Not final but Bogh in lead and trending toward victory.

Senate District 29 [\[full district election page\]](#) [| legislative directory page\]](#)

Fullerton/Diamond Bar Toss-up | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 38.8%, Republican: 31.4%, No Party Preference: 25.3%

Incumbent: Ling Ling Chang (R) term limit: 2028

Candidates:

- * Ling Ling Chang (Republican) - Senator/Business Owner
- Josh Newman (Democrat) - Veterans' Advocate

Results: Too soon to call. Trending for Newman.

Senate District 37 [\[full district election page\]](#) | legislative directory page

Anaheim Hills-Irvine-OC CoastLeans Democrat | Voter Registration Trend

Voter registration as of July 3, 2020:

Democrat: 34.8%, Republican: 35.4%, No Party Preference: 25.0%

Candidates:

- Dave Min (Democrat) - Irvine Law Professor
- * John M.W. Moorlach (Republican) - California State Senator

Results: Min wins.

Comments: Min is beating incumbent Moorlach who is a conservative Republican. Min is an attorney and law professor. He was also a policy director for the Center for American Progress. If he wins, he will likely be a progressive member of the Senate. Min is likely winner.

PROPOSITIONS

Proposition 14. Medical Research Bonds: PASSES

Proposition 15. Change Commercial Property Tax: VERY CLOSE BUT LIKELY FAILS

Proposition 16. End Diversity Ban: FAILS

Proposition 17. Restore Former Felon Vote: PASSES

Proposition 18. Allow Age 17 Primary Voters: FAILS

Proposition 19. Change Property Tax Rules: PASSES (TOO CLOSE)

Proposition 20. Stricter Parole, Sentencing: FAILS

Proposition 21. Local Government Rent Control: FAILS

Proposition 22. App-Based Drivers : PASSES

Proposition 23. Dialysis Clinic Standards: FAILS

Proposition 24. Expand Consumer Privacy: PASSES

Proposition 25. Approve Replacing Cash Bail: FAILS